MARCH EDITION

WHAT'S NEW?

Things to Do...

Materials

- Colored paper of your choice
- Paper plate for paint
- 3-4 colors of paint
- Scissors
- 3-4 plastic eggs
- Pencil

Instructions Step 1

1. Draw and cut out the shape of an egg on a large piece of paper and write the child's name on the back.
2. Pick 3-4 colors of paint and add a blob to the paper plate.
3. Open the plastic eggs and take half the egg and add to the paint (you are just using the edges of the egg)
4. Let your child stamp all over the paper.
5. Set aside to dry and enjoy!

March into laughter with our Easter and St. Patrick's Day jokes! From mischievous leprechauns to lucky punchlines, get ready for a pot of giggles!

Q: Why did the Easter egg hide?

A: Because it was a little chicken!

Q: Why did the Easter egg go to school?

A: To get egg-ucated!

Q: What type of bow can't be tied?

A: A rainbow!
