CELEBRATING BLACK HISTORY

At Sky Laark Designs, we proudly celebrate the richness of Black history and the cultures that continue to shape life across Canada. From the legacy of early Black communities to the creativity, resilience, and joy that show up in our families, art, and traditions today, Black culture is not just a footnote. It is foundational. The month of February and year round, we honour where we've been, recognize who we are, and hold spaces for the stories that carry us forward. This is our history, our culture, and our moment to honour it together.

LOVE & FAMILY

Valentine's Day is a reminder that love doesn't have to be big or fancy. Most of the time, it shows up in the everyday moments we share with our families. The quick hugs before heading out the door, the laughs around the table, and the little traditions that somehow become the ones we remember most. This season, at Sky Laark Designs, we're celebrating the kind of love that starts at home and grows through the time spent together. It's in those simple, the ordinary moments that we believe family love really shines, and it's those moments that makes them worth celebrating. Here's to cherishing those simple moments.

MARCH MADNESS

March invites families to embrace fun, creativity, and a touch of the Irish luck! Between March Break adventures and simple, cozy days at home, this season is all about making lucky memories together. Whether you're crafting shamrocks, building indoor forts, or sharing warm snacks around the table, a few little extras can make these moments even more memorable. Sky Laark helps you to add a few seasonal touches, whether it's bright outfits, fun decorations, or a sweet surprise, it turns ordinary days into special moments worth remembering. March becomes a month full of laughter, joy, and just enough good fortune to keep your family smiling all month long.
